In celebration of Canada's 150th birthday, Walnut Grove School of Dance is bringing some of the country's greatest symbols to the stage.

Bal-eh features all things Canadian, from ballet dancers dancing as the Montreal Canadiens, to six-year-old dancing Mounties.

Shows run Saturday, June 17 at noon and 3 p.m., and Sunday, June 18 at 3 p.m. at Chandos Pattison Auditorium, 10238 168 St., Surrey.
